

EAST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL

The ground is rocky,
crag protruding,
openly deriding mankind and its progeny,
playfully biting the soles of whoever dare pass.

The wind is contentious and unforgiving. It whips, and it forces, raging violently at harms
both real and imagined.

The rain pitches itself willfully,
heavenly homisucidal lead.
They blast fabric, skin, metal,
clouting whatever lies in their paths.

The mountain is tall, towering,
a testament to all that is without man.
There is no path- there is only a faint line, produced by the mind's eye. It gives the impression that the excursion might be possible.

II

Not the first to attempt, but the first to achieve bending herself to fit the demands of the constituents and in turn the land bends itself to fit her command.

As she steps over the last of the slag,
the wind plays with her hair,
her frame is enrobed by the mist,
the shards of rock crown the soles of her feet.

III

Staring down below, at the distance traveled- this made her learn to endure, the rocky places- they made her learn to fight for life, and the hawthorn, the daisy, the daffodil, and the ivy taught her to cherish and enjoy.

Dear Class of 2015:

Years from now we all will look back to the memories we had as East Siders. East Side has become a second home for all of us. A place where we have formed friendships and relationships with people we never knew. After four years of hard work we have finally made it! We have come to a point in our journey where we will be entering a new world filled with new experiences. We have just turned a page to a new chapter in our lives. This is where we will go our separate ways to fulfill our own dreams and goals. However, no matter where we end up going, the memories we had will be cherished forever. Dr. Seuss once said, "Sometimes you will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory". As we take on a new life and beginning, we must promise to never forget the moments we had at East Side High School as the Class of 2015. Never forget "once an east sider, always an east sider".

Life is like a puzzle...a million little pieces, all with their own spot to fill. Each and every day, we all look to find our way in the giant jigsaw that is life, while silently wondering what part we will play in the figurative bigger picture. At times, we may question why certain events happen in our lives or even why things are the way they are. I am a believer in the mantra that everything happens for a reason. I believe that one day when we are able to look back, we will be able to connect all of the pieces of the puzzle synchronically; it will be easy to see how everything fits together. We are all strong, brave, and inspirational. We all have overcome tremendous adversity, and should be proud that we have made it this far while acknowledging that we must continue pushing forward. Collectively, we have the power to change the world. We must continue to work hard while staying true to ourselves and enjoying the little moments that life has to offer. For it is often these modest moments that make our life complete, just like thousands of individual pieces coming together to form a magnificent puzzle.

Hard @ Work

When infant Reason first exerts her sway,
And new-formed thoughts their earliest charms display;
Then let the growing race employ your care
Then guard their opening minds from Folly's snare;
Correct the rising passions of their youth,
Teach them each serious, each important truth;
Plant heavenly virtue in the tender breast,
Destroy each vice that might its growth molest;
Point out betimes the course they should pursue;
Then with redoubled pleasure shall you view
Their reason strengthen as their years increase,
Their virtue ripen and their follies cease;
Like corn sown early in the fertile soil,
The richest harvest shall repay your toil.

Harry L. Ettlinger

East Side Class of 1945

Harry L. Ettlinger and his family in Karlsruhe, Germany, witnessed firsthand the rise of Hitler and the National Socialist Party. The Ettlinger family business Gebrueder Ettlinger, specializing in elegant women's fashions, was boycotted under the Nazi regime and closed in 1935. On September 25, 1938, the day following Ettlinger's Bar Mitzvah, he fled Germany with his parents and two younger brothers enroute to the United States where they arrived on October 9th. Six years after his arrival in the U.S. Ettlinger was drafted after graduating high school and returned to Europe as an infantryman in January 1945. He was assigned to the 99th Infantry Division to join the counterattack in the Battle of the Bulge. At the last minute, Ettlinger, who was fluent in German, was pulled out from going into combat on his nineteenth birthday. Unknown to him until much later, he had been re-designated as an interpreter and was to be assigned to the Nuremberg war trials.

While in Munich awaiting assignment, Ettlinger volunteered his services to the MFA&A section under Lieutenant Commander James Rorimer. One of his first tasks in mid-May 1945 was to assist with the interview of Heinrich Hoffmann, Hitler's personal photographer. From August 1945 to July 1946, Ettlinger and Lieutenant Dale Ford were assigned to supervise the underground operations at the Nazi repository in the Heilbronn-Kochendorf salt mines. In addition to the mining of salt, the underground mines had been utilized by the Nazis to protect German museum treasures as well as for the building of jet engine parts by Hungarian Jewish slave laborers from concentration camps. The first priority for the Monuments Men was to return seventy-three cases containing sections of stained glass belonging to Strasbourg Cathedral. The stained glass had been removed from the windows by French authorities for safe keeping at the onset of the war and later sent to Heilbronn by the Nazis. Ettlinger noted that "the Strasbourg windows were the first thing we sent back. That was on orders from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower...as a gesture of good faith." In all, it took ten months and five shipments, including one to Paris, to empty the mines of some 900 works of art. Most of the treasures later went back to their German institutions.

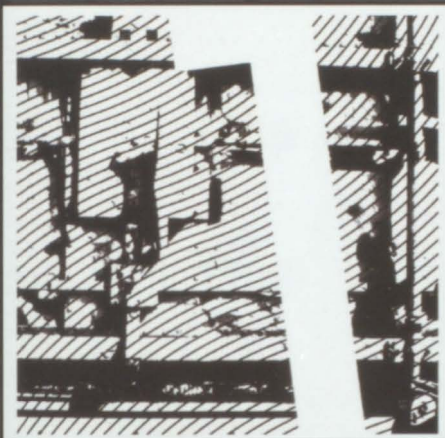

Unlike the majority of his fellow Monuments Men, Ettlinger, while brought up to appreciate art, had no plans to go into the field professionally. Years later, he remarked, "I was just the kid from New Jersey. To tell you the truth, I wasn't as interested in the paintings as I was in other things over there."

Following the war, Ettlinger went home to Newark, New Jersey and later to Long Island, New York. There he earned Master's degrees in mechanical engineering and business administration before becoming Deputy Program Director for a company that produced guidance systems for submarine-launched nuclear weapons. Today he is co-chair of the Wallenberg Foundation of New Jersey, named for Raoul Wallenberg, a wealthy Swedish-born Protestant who inspired others to help him rescue approximately 100,000 Hungarian Jews from the Holocaust. Ettlinger carries out the Foundation's mission and encourages Wallenberg's ideas by educating young people about the power of a single person's actions to positively affect society. In 2002 Ettlinger issued his autobiography titled "Ein Amerikaner: Anecdotes from the life of Harry Ettlinger," released in limited edition.

East Side
High School

You are unique
You are stunning
Beautiful, Inspiring, Majestic
You light up the world.

Many have spoken
But not have witnessed the beauty that you are

You are not the Sleeping Beauty
You are you!

Embrace yourself
No one else can compare
You are here for a reason
So do not live half a life only to realize that you have thrown it away

Let your voice be heard through the mountaintops.
Let your actions change humanity.
Let your self be independent.

Do you!
Stay humble!
And carry on!

Football

A Record to Forget , But a Lesson to be Learned.

The East Side football team finished the season with a 0-8 record. These boys will most likely forget these stats, but they will surely remember the hard work, effort and dedication that went into playing football. Hopefully that lesson can be transferred to their future endeavors.

The season was not all gloom and doom. There were bright spots. Those include, Airton Monteiro, William "Pooh" Jones, Wydir Miller, and Shuaib Ismael graduating after four full seasons of East Side football. "AJ" Airton Monteiro will be looking to continue playing or coaching in some capacity. The commitment of these seniors to this team will hopefully rub off on the younger players that will carry the torch next year.

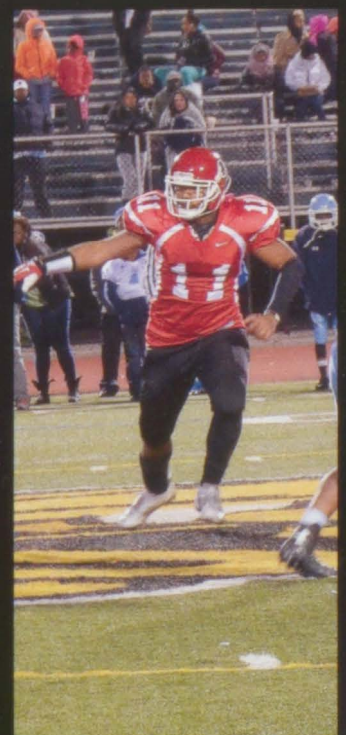

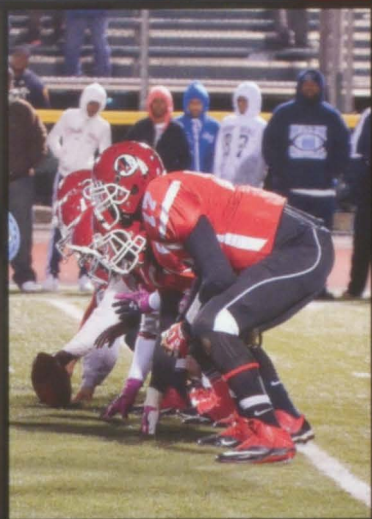

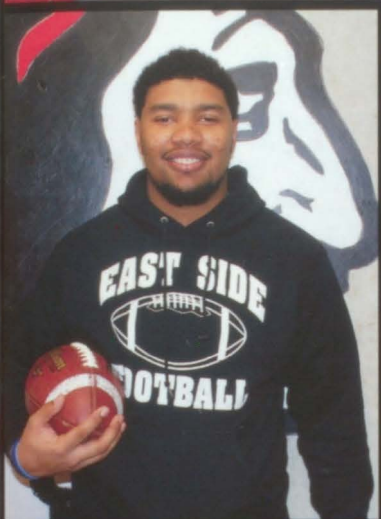

The lesson to be learned? The 1990 Patriots ended their season with a 1-14 record. They are now a dynasty. East Side too can be a dynasty.

The football team, ready to enter the field.

Tajee Parks, Wydir Miller, Courtney Alsbrook, Jason Torres, Ray Woodson, Sydney Woodson, Richard Perez, Najuwana Garretson, Airtan Monteiro, Jamal Walker, Jose Fajardo, Rasheed Mills, Armani Bermidez, Najee Parks, Rahmid Frye, Quadir Brown, Nasir Day, Al Rahkeem Woodson, Shariff Valentine, Gabriel Rivas, Ricky Garner, Luis Peirra, Ibys Corchado, Sahib Martinez, Phillip DaSilva

Cross Country

Nearing the Finishline

This year was a rebuilding year, we had a Frosh Samantha Branco who placed 2nd pl. in the City Championship race and placed 4th in the Conference meet. Our other Frosh were Haleemot Adeyanju, and Chizoba Ukazu. We also had a new addition Success Uhunwongho a Junior, Mariselys Urena a senior all are continuing to run Indoor and outdoor track.

How do we put these tags on again?

Chilling before the race.

Boys' Soccer

East Side Soccer team finished the season with a 15-6 record. This year's team came together with the leadership of a 4 year Varsity Starter Goalkeeper Austin Verissimo. The team helped each other on and off the field like a family. It was great seeing the team come together during the wins and losses. The hard work and dedication led us to the Essex County and State Sectional Tournament Semi-Finals and winning the 11th Newark Public Schools Soccer Tournament. Loosing both of these semi-finals 1-0 was really hard, but in both games we played very hard and we deserved better. The coaching staff is very proud of this team's accomplishments on and off the field. Many of the student athletes are honor students, who have been with the East Side Soccer Program the last four years. Mauricio Cruz and Luan C. Souza led the team in scoring and assists while Austin Verissimo recorded 9 shutouts.

East Side finished with the third best record in the Super Essex Conference and 4th in the State Group 3.

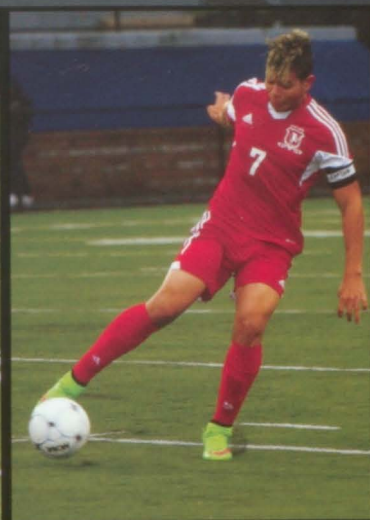

The driving rain couldn't hamper their spirits as they continued to fight in the pursuit of victory against Seton Hall Prep.

Leaving the opposition behind.

Austin Verissimo , Tiago Afonso, David De Jesus, Daniel Silva, Luis Cortez, Gabriel De Oliveira, Luan C. Souza, Howard Trindade, Mauricio Cruz, Carlos Troya, Kevin Avila, Agostinho Oliveira, Edgar Chavez, John Branco, Michael Villalva, Andre Da Silva, Jefferson Rincon, Christian Estela, Lucas Da Silva Vasconcellos, Christopher Sanchez

Girls' Soccer

The East Side High School Girls' Soccer team was off to a very slow start this season. The poor results early in the season were to be expected because the team was young and inexperienced. The freshmen outnumbered the seniors five to one. As the season progressed the results improved and the team managed to end the season with .500 record.

The team's second game against perennial rivals, Cedar Grove, saw the East Side girls leading 4-0 at halftime. This after they lost their first game by a score of 6 to 0. This was the catalyst that turned their season around. Much of the success can be attributed to the standout play of goalie Sophia Das Neves. Freshman Nicole Vieira proved to be a solid partner for Alejandra Gonzalez, the team's only senior, on defence. Adriana Nobre was a prolific striker, netting a total of 18 goals for the season.

Girls' Volleyball

After getting off to a slow start, the Varsity Girls Volleyball team finished very strong. As a first year head coach, there is always an adjustment period from the previous season. While getting to know the girls took a little while one thing stood out from the the first day moving forward, this was a group who were very eager to learn. It took some time and commitment from the girls and coaching staff but with about two weeks left in the season the team began to gel, the chemistry was great, and we finally were executing. I'm really looking forward to next season and I hope the girls are as well.

Boys' Basketball

The 2014-15 Boys' Basketball season was a successful one. This season East Side finished with 18 wins and only 9 losses. The team relied heavily on its three senior captains, Jabreel Ahmad, Ahmad Harrison, and Taj Price. The Boys Basketball team was a finalist for the NPS Christmas Tournament, and a semi-finalist in the Essex County Tournament. This Year, East Side participated in the Newark Basketball Invitational for the first time, with the games being played at the Prudential Center. East Side defeated, state ranked, Gil St. Bernards during the tournament. Coach Garvin and Coach Tavares would like to wish their 6 seniors (Keon Williams, Keith Howard, and Aaron Flood) nothing but best in their futures. They have all been a pleasure to coach, and phenomenal student-athletes who have East and the City of Newark to the fullest.

Bright Future to Come for the Lady Red Raiders

The 2014-15 was filled with emerging stars. Carmen Melendez a 3 year varsity player led the team in practice and on the court garnering every ounce of effort from her teammates. Jailene Aponte and Beatriz Figueroa developed into 3 point shooters and were tied for the year going into the final game when Jailene broke out with five 3 pointers a new school record for the Lady Raiders. Kim Zagadou a sophomore and Sha Dazha Rickets rounded out the varsity and showed signs of greatness.

Ice Hockey

Although the Red Raiders went 2-9-2, the 2014-15 Ice Hockey Season was one that showed progress and promise for the young squad. The East Side Hockey Team started the year with 5am practices at the Prudential Center in which over 40 players exchanged sleep for the opportunity to put on a varsity jersey. This young team's sacrifice and commitment was evident in the tremendous improvement of their players over the course of the season. This year's team only has two seniors including forward Luis Angamarca and standout goaltender, Malachi Clyburn. The rest of the team will return for the next season led by Co Captains, Josh Seabra and Carlos Albuquerque, who are juniors. The teams top 4 leading scorers were sophomores, which included the team leader in points, Wilson Pratts, followed by Steven Luzio, Alex Mikoleit as well as junior Gianni DeFederico. The stingy defense was anchored by Gabe Dos Santos and David Dos Santos who are freshman while Chris Dos Santos brought his veteran leadership that solidified the group.

East Side Wrestling Moves Up a Division!

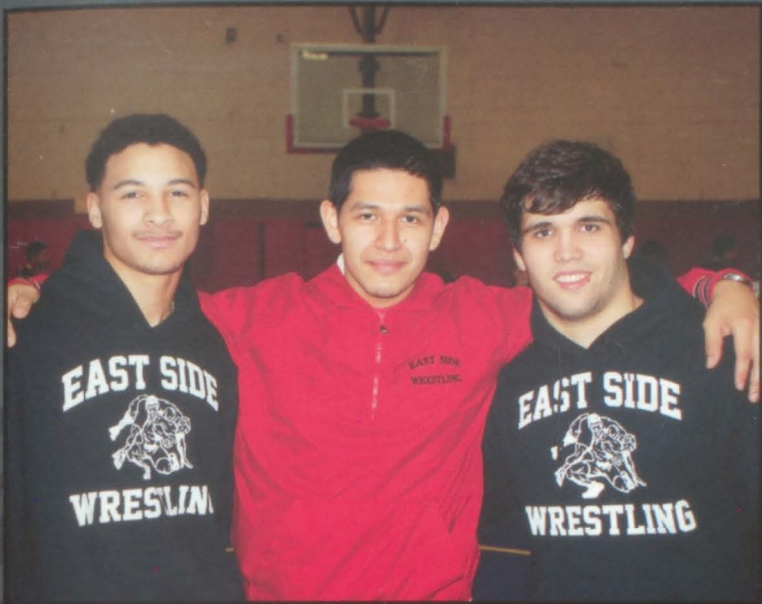

The 2014-2015 Wrestling season was our 1st year competing in the American Division in the Super Essex Conference. This was a move up in our conference and our wrestlers had to challenge themselves to succeed. We finished with a season record of 6-16. We were led by Senior Captain, Daniel Silva (16-16, 3rd place in Clifton Tournament) and 1st year wrestler Senior, Shuaib Ismail (19-9, 3rd In Clifton Tournament,) and Junior, Ilys Corchado (18-8, 2nd Clifton Tournament, 1st Union City Tournament) Our team despite its record, showed a lot of grit and toughness and to all wrestlers who finished the season know that in itself is a special accomplishment. We will miss our Seniors and wish them the best of luck in the future.

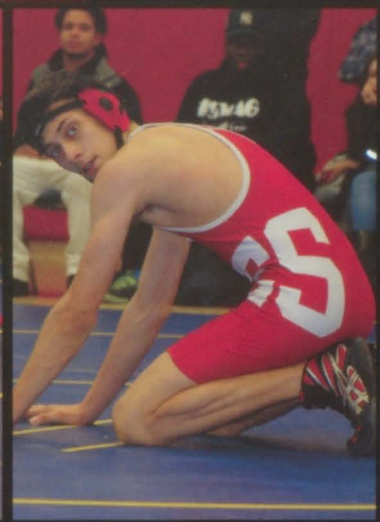

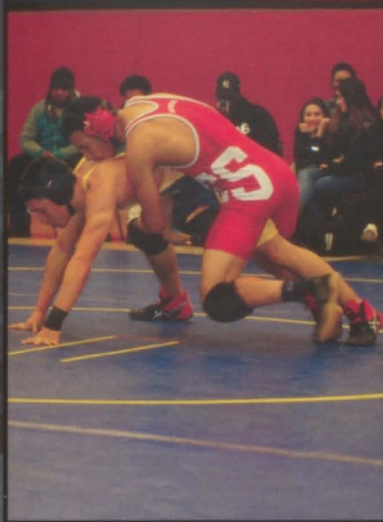

Wrestling is a tough sport., but our athletes are in really good hands

Swimming

This winter season, the swim team had a well-rounded season with the help of Coach Bosolosco and Coach La Cava. The swim team had a great season. The team was able to overcome the obstacles mainly because of our great leaders in charge. Senior, Tatiana Gomez, 1st year swimmer at east side, led the way for the girls, and Senior Luis Lopes took charge of the boys. These two captains really led a great victory to this season, and encouraged our beginner swimmers to begin their swimming career in a great path. The seniors will surely be missed not only because of their great skills but because of their dedication to the swim team and the passion to the sport.

Bowling

East Side Bowling Lined Them Up and Knocked Them Down

Our Bowling team had a great season this year. The team captain was Tianna Ortiz, who's high game for the season was a 198. She advanced to the Essex County Tournament but was unable to advance to the finals. The other senior bowler was Paulo Fontes and the other underclassman were Kayla Rodrigues, Rokiadou Fofana, Roksana Prapakaran, Mawa Camara and Noel Martinez.

Girls! Tennis

The East Side Girls tennis team was led by Junior Samantha Cabrera, the best player in the city, who went undefeated vs Newark opponents and was a 1st team Colonial division selection. Senior and first-year player Kimberlyn Correa proved to be an excellent addition to the team playing 2nd doubles. Juniors Aliyah Fleming and Mecca Gayles anchored the 2nd and 3rd single positions this season. Junior Assya Smith and Sophomore Wendy Yupa led the double teams at the 1st position all season. The 2016 season looks bright as the returning girls will vie for an opportunity to win the Independence division this upcoming fall.

THINKING!!!

you matter
Your life has a PURPOSE.
even if you think you're worthless.
Your story is IMPORTANT.
even if you think no one is paying attention.
Your dreams
COUNT.
even if you think no one believes in them.
Your voice MATTERS.
even if you think no one is listening.
You were born to make an IMPACT.
even if you haven't met the right person yet.
